Day of fun for all ages at Halton Lodge

Local families in the Halton Lodge area of Runcorn came together last week (3.6) to enjoy a fun day organised by Cosmopolitan Housing Association at the Halton Lodge Community Centre on Whitchurch Way, Runcorn.

There was something for all ages as children took on the climbing wall, and grown ups had their faces painted. 28 residents joined in the litter picking challenge around the estate and the DJing workshop proved a hit with all ages too!

The recycling challenge included 4 skips that were provided for residents in the area to safely dispose of any unwanted bulky items. Northwest Electronics were on hand to remove and recycle all bulky items including TVs, fridges and washing machines.

The litter-picking. volunteers received a well deserved picnic lunch and entry into the prize draw with two local residents each winning £50 worth of Asda vouchers and all volunteers received a £5 voucher for Asda.

Inside there were manicures, craft making activities and a wide range of services attended to offer advice and support to the local community including the YMCA, Fire Service and Police.

Local resident Alan Gilbert who came to the event with his two young daughters, said:” Today’s been good fun the kids and the grown ups! I’m looking forward to the next event here at the centre.”

Cosmopolitan Housing Association organised and funded the event in partnership with Halton Borough Council and Cheshire Constabulary.

The fun day is the first major event to take place at Halton Lodge Community Centre since its recent 74,000 refurbishment.
